HUNTON AND MARTIN.

THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES TAKES A FOTE FOR U. S. SENATORS.

The Investigating Committee Will Report To-day-Oratory in the Lower Branch, A Great Many Bills Introduced.

The excitement which has prevailed during the past few days in regard to the United States senatorship has subsided, for the two houses of the General Assembly, without waiting for the report of the Investigation Committee, yesterday proceeded in separate session to vote for Messrs. Eppa Hunton and Thomas Staples Martin for the unexpired and for the long term for United

The session of the House opened compily at noon, as usual, with Speak-Cardwell in the chair. There was no rayer and the House proceeded at once Cardwell announced that he had placed Mr. Murrell, of Campbell, on the Committee of Courts of Justice. Mr. Ryan, of Loudoum, introduced a cent resolution providing that the General Assembly take a recess on Wednessay, December 20th, until January 1, 34. This was agreed to.

Mr. Fahrney offered a joint resolution equesting Colonel Charles T. O'Ferrall, lovernor-elect, and Major R. C. Kent, Governor-elect, and Major R. C. Kent, Lieutenant-Governor-elect, to take the eath of office in the hall of the House of Delegates on January 1, 1894, at noon.
This was agreed to.
Leave of absence was granted as follows: Mr. Burke, of Bedford, one day;
Mr. Saunders, of Wythe, one day.
Mr. Nicol. of Prince William, then made the following announcement: "I will state on behalf of the Committee on Investigation that it will make its final report on Wednesday at 1 P. M., and that nothing has as yet transpired to make it improper to proceed to the election of United Against Undue Haste.

Mr. Saunders stated that it was a ust be to every gentleman upon the or, that after a full, elaborate, and mplete investigation—an investigation complete investigation—an investigation in which the most unusual latitude was allowed—the committee were able to report unandmously that they had discovered nothins to besmirch the reputation of any of the senatorial candidates, er to sully the fair name of our mother State. Still, the speaker said, it would be illegical for the General Assembly to proceed with the election of senators until the committee had made a final report. That this would be done in the morning, and that in the meantime the House could take an informal ballot that would elect no one, and then adjourn Hause could take an informal band that would elect no one, and then adjourn nath to-merrow and await the committee's report. Under the circumstances, Mr. Saunders said that it was eminentproper that this course should be

Mr. Nicol, of Prince William, next pro eded to nominate General Eppa Hun-n, Jr., for United States senator for short term. He spoke in substance day marks an epoch in the political istory of Virginia. It is another miless. To-day she exercises one of her ributes of sovereignty in naming a re-sentative to represent her honor and sentative to represent her honor and racter and her dignity in the United tes Senate. When the lamented John Barbour, a man whose memory the pile of Virginia will ever delight to or, had passed from the scenes of this b, when he had gone down before that at monster that comes with equal pace the palace and the cottage gate, the stion arose in this Commonwealth who aid be his successor, and there was not could be his successor, and there was not county in this Commonwealth but that all name a man who would reflect honor on Virginia, who might have been appared to that high position. But it used his Excellency, Governor McKing, to designate the Hon, Eppa Hunton, the county of Fauquier, to be our representative in the United States Senate until tieneral Assembly should convene. Is a source of pleasure to every Virlan to know that in that commission in the Governor General Hunton has the Governor General Hunton has arged his duties with such fidelity, such character, and with such conupon his Mother Commonwealth, and or and distinction upon himself. So was the choice of Governor McKinin selecting General Hunton to suc-the lamented Barbour in the United es Senate, that when General Hunton ought his commission from the Governor Virginia, and laid it down before the eral Assembly, it was as pure and mess as when he received it, and the resentatives of the Commonwealth, out a dissenting voice, renewed this

Mr. Nicol closed with an eloquent perkation, highly eulogizing General Hunton.

Seconded by Mr. Gibson. Colonel Gibson, of Culpeper, also paid a glowing tribute to Senator Hunton, and stated that he was proud to say that whenever General Hunton came up as candidate before the people for election or re-election, he supported him. He thought the General Assembly could vote and did not need to pay any attention to hewspaper claims.

Mr. Gregory, of Chesterfield, Manchesfer, and Powhatan, nominated Major Mann Page, and the nomination was seconded by his colleague, Mr. Carter H.

The ballot was then proceeded with, resulting in 88 votes for General Eppa Hunton and 10 for Major Mann Page. Judge Buford, of Brunswick (Indepen-dent Democrat), voted with the regular Democrats, while Mr. Clark, of Halifax,

Mr. Downing, of Clark and Warren, text arose and stated that the investigating committee in its executive session had come to the conclusion that its work was practically settled, and that, had it not been for some personal explanations, the report would have been presented that day, and the report would have been almost unanimous. He thought, therefore, hat nothing was to prevent the two ouses voting for the schator for the ng term at once. Mr. Saunders, of Franklin, then withtrew his motion, and nominations for the bag term were declared to be in order. Nominaled Mr. Martin.

Mr. Downing, of Clark and Warren, in elect address, which was remarkable its elegant language, nominated Mr. speech was attentively listened to in immense crowd of spectators, who a were many ladies. He spoke, in time and occasion have arrived n we must elect to the Senate of United States a colleague for the n. John W. Daniel, a man whose con-sation and whose oratory are so de-tful, that whose over hears him is liked to Daniel's view, whether Daniel right or wrong. Represented in the

of foreign surety companies to do business fails or verong. Represented in the counting of the nation by one so gifted, because at the norughly practical, commonstrate man, a man who is a master in the total directing his fellow-man, and, withal, a patriot.

Have we such a person upon whom we can delegate this important trust? I have an delegate this important trust? I have he man may be measured up to all of these requirements; a character as modest as a woman as brave as it is ambitious.

By the same: To amend and re-enact becomplishment of his highest sayington who depends solely upon his fellow his hood of one of the raots believed an aristocratic families.

Mr. J. B. Moon, of Albemarle, seconded kr. Martin's nomination by stating that of foreign surety companies to do business find the requirements of the first time for several days, having been confined to his home by stekness.

To toucts of Justles.

By Mr. Saunders: To amend and reseated two prisoners who had partly served out terms in the county sil. They are to want of form.

By the same: To amend and re-enact section 237 of the Code of Virginia, in relation to 'how as character as modest as a woman sile and the conciliance.

By the same: To repeal section 237 of the Code of Virginia, in relation to 'how are concilide."

By the same: To amend and re-enact section 237 of the Code of Virginia, in relation to 'how are concilide."

By the same: To amend and re-enact section 237 of the Code of Virginia, in relation to 'how are considered of wife-beating, his ilberty of the Code of Virginia, in relation to 'how are considered of wife-beating, his ilberty and the conciliance of the code of Virginia, in relation to 'how are convicted of richaspendic of the code of Virginia, in relation to 'how are now simple the concelled.

By the same: To amend and re-enact time the world.

By the same: To amend and re-enact time the world in the world in the two his home by stellar time from the matter. It is the mrite, time from the meat the world have head two prisoners he would not fully represent his people if he failed to second Mr. Martin's nomination. He pointed out that Mr. Martin had been endorsed for the place by two successive Legislatures, and he felt confident that in due time Mr. Martin would be looked at as one of the leaders on the floor of the United States Senate.

Mr. Patteson, of Buckingham and Cumberland, also seconded the nomination of Mr. Martin, who had been the architect of his fortune, and stood now on the very of Mr. Martin, who had been the architect of his fortune, and stood how on the very height of his profession. He had never known a man who possessed so much power of analysis; who could bring order out of chaos; who was equally the representative of a sentiment, the representation of the true spirit of the progress of the age, the representative of a new era of a new South.

After picturing how highly he cherished of a new South.

After picturing how highly he cherished the memories of the late war, for which he was willing to fight with the same ferocity as a tigress for her young ones, he added that there should be measures of reform; there should be progress, and, with men like Daniel and Martin, Virginia would stand in the very fore-front of progress. Virginia must recognize the fact that new measures and new men were necessary. Of all the people in the State who had supported Mr. Martin, no one would ever have cause to regret it.

Mr. Allen, of Mecklenburg, nominated

Mr. Allen, of Mecklenburg, nominated Major Mann Page.

The ballot was then proceeded with, and when the name of Mr. Withers, of Pittsylvania and Danville, was called, that gentleman stated, while he stood ready to vote for Mr. Martin, he must protest against one thing, that he was compelled to vote in a contest before the committee investigating the same had made its final report.

Mr. Withrow asked that his vote be recorded with a similar protest.

The ballot resulted in 85 votes for Mr. Martin and 10 votes for Mr. Page.

Messrs. Bolling. Buford, Burks, and Clark were absent.

The House then adjourned until this

The House then adjourned until this morning at II o'clock.

Bills Passed.

No. 35: Authorizing the board of super-visors of Bedford county to apply the proceeds of certain judgments belonging to the said county in improving the public roads of the said county, and authorizing the said board to raise money with the aid of the said judgments, and to assign the same for cash or as collateral. No. 44: To authorize the board of supervisors of Shenandoah county to cause all does of said county to be muzzled and confined, and if found running at large thereafter, may be killed.

No. 31: To postpone the imposition of the 5 per cent. penalty on taxes and levies until April 1, 1894.

Bill Dismissed. The following bill was dismissed:

No. 16: For increase of the compensa-tion of the County Court judge of Rock-

Piaced on the Calendar. The following bills were placed on

No. 49: To amend and re-enact section 525 of the Code of Virginia, of 1887, in regard to the collecting of certain fees of commissioners of the revenue.

No. 41: To allow the late treasurer of Prince William county to collect by evy certain tax bills not returned de-

No. 42: To allow John J. Blackstone, late freasurer of Accomac county, ad-ditional time in which to levy and collect any unpaid tax tickets in his hands. No. 43: To ratify, validate, approve, and confirm the charter of the Dies Manu facturing Company, and to make valid and binding all acts of said company and all contracts made by or with the said company since April 16, 1892.

Bills Introducedfand Referred. The following bills were introduced

By Mr. Ryan, of Loudoun: To amend section 40% of the Code of Virginia, with reference to jurors. Code of Virginia, with reference to furnishing the reports to reporter and judges. The bill provides that the reports to be furnished shall include those of the coun prevent the extermination of partridges or qualls in the county of Rockbridge. By Mr. Burks: Authorizing the com-missioner of direct taxes for the county of Bedford, to pay over to the board of supervisors of said county, any balance of direct tax funds in his hands to be used in improvement of public roads of said county, and providing for enforcing payment of same, and for refunding any of said funds to persons entitled thereto. By Mr. Cabell (by request); Regulating the sale of fertilizers. The bill provides for a tax of ten cents per ton, of 2,000 pounds, to be paid on all commercial fertilizers offered for sale in this

Restricting Dentists.

By Mr. Thomas: To amend and reand re-enact sections 1767 and 1774, of chapter 79 of the Code of Virginia, 1887 relating to the practice of dentistry, ap-proved January 28, 1890." The bill provides that only persons who graduated and received diplomas shall be allowed to practice dentistry, except these who were so engaged on January 1, 1896, or who shall have been been as who shall have been in continuous practice of deatistry for a period of ten years previous thereto, either within or without the State. Every person practicng dentistry on January 28, 1890, or there after beginning the practice of dentis-try, shall register his name and postoffice address, together with the name of the college from which he is a gradthe board of examiners

By Mr. Diggs: For the relief of Emily Pointer, of King William county, the widow of a Confederate soldier. The bill, provides that the name of the person samed shall be placed on the pension

By Mr. Perkins: To authorize and enpower the board of supervisors of War-wick county to increase the salary of the judge of the county court of said

To Extend the Time. By Mr. Willard: To amend and re enact section 14 of an act incorporating the Falls Church and Potomac Railway Company, approved January 24, 1888, as amended by an act approved January 24, 1880, and amended by an act ap-proved January 22, 1882, entitled "An act amend and re-enact section 14 of an incorporating the Falls Church and tomac Railway Company." The bill road to five years from January 24, By Mr. Caddall: To amend the charter of Pulaski city.

Railway Company," The bill

By the same: To change the name of By the same: To change the name of the Pulaski Development Company. By Mr. McRae: To facilitate the giving of bonds required by law. The bili pro-vides that any company with a paid-up capital of not less than $250,000, incorcapital of not less than $250,000, incorporated and organized under the laws of any State, of the United States, or foreign country, for the purpose of transacting business as surety on obligations of persons or corporations, may be accepted as surety upon the bond of any person or corporation required by law to execute bonds.

By the same: To regulate the admission of foreign surety companies to do business in this State.

lation to how plea shall commence.

By the same: To abolish the action of detinue and to enlarge the action of trover.

By the same: To amend and re-enact section 2907 of the Code of Virginia, in relation to when and how property sued for may be taken from possession of defendant; the bond to be given by plain-

All the bills introduced by Mr. Saunders were referred to the Committee for Courts of Justice.

Resolution Adopted, The following resolution, introduced by Mr. Gibson, and reported favorably by the Committee on Counties, Cities, and

Resolved, That this House will consider Resolved, That this House will consider no bill authorizing the board of supervisors of any county to increase the salary of any county court judge, Commonwealth's attorney, clerk of court, or sheriff unless such bill be accompanied by a petition in writing of the majority board of supervisors sought to be so em-

Counties, Citles and Towns. The Committee on Counties, Cities, and Towns held another meeting yesterday norning, with Mr. W. A. Fentress, of Portsmouth, in the chair. The bill of Mr. Fahrney was first taken up, which allows boards of supervisors to contract loans for the construction of court-houses, jalls, etc. After some little liscussion the bill was laid over for some discussion the bill was laid over for some further consideration.

Mr. Slemp, of Lee (Populist), again appeared before the committee and asked that his bill be passed, which seeks to repeal the law giving the board of supervisors the power to increase the salary of the judge of the county court. He explained that the judge had previously received $400 per year, and had been recently increased to $500. The bill was laid over to look into the constitutionality of the bill. of the bill.

Mr. Binford's bill in regard to the condemnation of lard for school purposes was again taken up. The committee was again taken up. The committee anany decided to report the fall favorably, with the provision that no school-house shall be erected within 400 yards of any dwelling, yard, garden, or orchard without the consent of the owner. Henrico county is excepted from the provisions of the bill, where the distance is to be 100 yards to be 100 yards.

The bill in regard to the change of the

The bill in regard to the change of the county seat in Pulaski was laid over until this morning at 3 o'clock.

The committee decided to report favorably the resolution offered by Mr. Gibson, of Culpeper, under which the House declines to act on any bill increasing the salaries of county court judges, cierks, Commonwealth attorneys, and sheriffs without a petition in writing signed by a majority of the supervisors of the respective counties.

Another Cancus.

Another Caucus.

Mr. John F. Ryan, of Loudoun, chairman of the Democratic caucus of the two houses of the General Assembly, gave notice yesterday that the next caucus will be held on Wednesday evening. January 3d, at 8 o'clock, in the hall of the House of Delegates, for the purpose of nominating for judges of the Supreme Court of Appeals. The term of office of the five present judges of that court will expire on January 1, 1894. Senator Chemas S. Martin.

Thomas Staples Martin was born in Albemarie county nearly forty-six years ago, where he has resided ever since, though his law practice has of late years kept him as much in Richmond and other parts of the State as at home. He was educated at the Virginia Military Institute and the University of Virginia. He served in the call of cadets in the trenches around Richmond at the time of Lee's ound Richmond at the time of Lee's

At the age of twenty-one, just as he was entering the profession of the law, the death of his father, John S. Martin, occurred, leaving him the responsible head of the family. Some ten or twelve years ago he began Some ten or twelve years ago he began to take an active part in politics, serving on the State and Executive Committees as the advisory friend of the State chairman. His first prominent appearance in politics was when he managed Senator Daniel's candidacy for the Senate in 1885. He has never held public office before. He is a ready debater in court and an excellent jury lawyer. Coupled with well-grounded knowledge of the law, he built up a large practice. For the past several years he has been retained as counsel by the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad. Mr. Martin is a man of exemplary habits. He never touched liquor or tobacco. He is a bachelor. He is one of the most hospitable of all men at his beautiful home, "Fairview," in Albemarie has devoted his life to the support of those dependent upon him. His mother, two sisters, and a brother reside with him. He has a married sister living in Albemarle county, and three brothers residing in Richmond.

He has served on various boards of State institutions, and is now a member of the Board of Visitors to the Virginia

Military Institute.
It is not expected that Mr. Martin will make his permanent residence in Washington when he assumes the duty of sena-tor on the 4th of March, 1995.

Eenrico County Court.

The Henrico County Court was in seslot of business. The case of Craddock, who is charged with assaulting 'Squire Larus, was continued until next term of the court.

Justice Lewis disposed of the following

George Timmons and Phil. Harris, charged with assaulting with a rock and distiguring Junius Zwanziger, were bound over to keep the peace for twelve months, in the sum of $300 each.

William Anderson (colored) was charged with allowing a vicious dog to run large. The case was dismissed for want of sufficient evidence. Jaller Lew Fussell was out for the first time for several days, having been con-fined to his home by slokness. Judge Minor yesterday morning liber-

DE. PARKER'S WAGONS.

section 3269 of the Code of Virginia, in re-Four of Them Will Start To-day to Gather Ciothing for the Poor.

Dr. W. W. Parker is a philanthropist, not only in theory, but in practice as well. To-day he will send four wagons into every nook and corner of Richmond Into every nook and corner of Richmond to gather up the clothing for the poor of the city. In an appeal which he has issued to the "good housewife," he says: Please make up your bundle of clothing, shoes, socks, anything and everything to keep the body warm and the feet dry, that you can spare to aid your poor, sick, unfortunate brother and sister in these hard times.

unfortunate brother and easier in these hard times.

The wagons will start to-morrow at 8 A. M. from Ninth and Main atreets—one for Church Hill and three for Shockoe Hill. Main, Franklin, Grace, Eighteenth, Nineteenth, and Twentieth, below Ninth street, will be hauled by the first wagon, and Cary, Main, Franklin, and Grace, and south of Cary above Second street on Shockoe Hill, by the three other wagons, all on Wednesday, the 20th.

Daily builetins will give the progress of the wagons. The approach will be announced by bells, and each wagon will be in charge of a man and boy, besides the driver. The ladies of the City Mission have kindly consented to issue these clothes from their rooms on Fourteenth and Franklin and Ross streets.

and Franklin and Ross streets,

Soudan and Princeton.

A small audience greeted the perform-ance of "The Soudan" at the Theatre last evening. The comedy portion called forth much laughter, while the pathetic scenes much laughter, while the pathetic scenes were well rendered. A special feature of this melodrama is the transformation of scenery at the end of each act, which keeps the audience in a state of excitement until in the fourth act, when the climax is reached. In this act a battle takes place in a desert city between English soldiers and Arabs, and then, with a short intermission the scene chances, and thort intermission, the scene changes, and the return home of the victorious English the return home of the victorious English soldiers, with their caravans and horses, is presented with a realistic effect that drew forth unbounded applause.

Miss Annie Barclay as Nellie Temple, and Master Walter Lewis as Dick, gave a superb rendition of their roles. Messrs. James Horne as Captain Temple, Morrison as Horatio Spokins, and Alex. Kearney as Paul Devigne, also distinguished themselves.

matinee this afternoon and the perform-

To-morrow evening the Princeton Glee and Eanjo and Mandolin Club will give a delightful entertainment. This engagement will prove one of the society events of the season, and will bring forth a brilliant audience. In the club are included several of the "Tigers" of the late foot-Fall game. The club will be here for one night only.

The Franklin Assembly,

The Franklin Assembly.

David Lee led the second german of the Franklin Assembly last evening at the Masonic Temple, with Miss Neille Perrin, Miss Cole, of Chatham, Va., was the only stranger present.

Mr. Julian Price danced with Miss Merrill, Mr. Gervas Storrs with Miss Ann McGuire, Mr. James Bell with Miss Bessie Wicht, Mr. C. C. Price with Miss. McGuire, Mr. James Bell with Miss Res-sie Wight, Mr. C. C. Price with Miss Emily Wattles, Mr. R. T. Davis with Fan-nie McGuire, Mr. W. R. Storrs with Miss Cole, of Chatham, Mr. Lewis Harvey with Miss Mand Camp, Mr. William Taliaferro with Miss Louise Brander, Mr. Willie Wight with Miss Berta Alcott, Mr. Edward Wight with Miss Finney, Mr. Clarkrook, Lames with Miss Finney, Mr. laybrook James with Miss Marion Reb-Rogers, Mr. J. P. Watson with Miss Eugenia Gordon, Mr. P. M. Hobson with Miss Michaux, Mr. A. B. Dickinson with

ort Turner, W. C. Rosser, and Loraine

Ruffin.
Mrs. Beity Mayo and Mrs. E. W. Per-

Wingfield-Duegins.

Wingfield—Durgins.

J. Tyree Wingfield was united in the holy bends of matrimony to Miss Willie V. Dungins last evening at 6 o'clock by the Rev. W. Landrum.

The Second Baptist church, where the ceremony was performed, was prettily decorated with ferns for the occasion. The bride was attired in a pretty traveling gown of ecru brown, with hat and gloves to match. She carried a bouquet of bridal reses.

The best man was James Duggins, and the maid of honor Miss Minnie Duggins. Mr. Wingfield and his bride will take a short wedding trip North, and will tem-porarily reside at 313 west Marshall street

Good Templars.

The Trinity Lodge of Good Templars held a large and enthusiastic meeting at Central Hall last night. Several new members were received into the lodge, and preparations made for the anniversary of the lodge.

The reports of the different committees

There being no further business the neeting adjourned.

Fought in a Bar-Room.

Fought in a Bar-Room,
A fight occurred in a bar-room on Broad street yesterday morning, in which Joe Daly was cut by William Stack, William Hunt, and Lewis Martley.
The three latter men were locked up in the Third station to await a trial in Justice Crutchfield's court this morning.

An Alarm of Fire.

An alarm of fire was turned in last night at 7:45 o'clock from box No. 12. The alarm was caused by the burning of the tar distillery on Williamsburg avenue near the gas works. The loss was about $500. There was no insurance. The cause of the fire is unknown.

Fredericksburg Notes,

FREDERICKSBURG, VA., Dec. 19.— Special.—Mr. John C. Curtis and Miss Lizzie W. Embrey, both of Fauquier county, were married in this city yester-Rev. Dr. Thomas S. Dunaway offi-L. S. York, lessee of the Taylor granite quarries here, has sold a half in-terest in the property to Mr. Swift, the millionaire watchmaker.

Rev. Norman Luck, of Prince William county, has accepted a call to the pas-torate of Upper Essex Baptist church.

DANGER JUST AHEAD.

A Prominent Professor Speaks About the Threatening Things Abroad at This Time

"It is surprising now many people are suffering to-day from so-called coughs, colds, and influenza."

The remark was made by a very prominent professor, connected with one of the leading New York nospitals. Continuing, he said:

it is not these things that are troub-ing people, but it is an advanced form of r old enemy, the grip. People feel out sorts, sneeze, have pains in the mus-s and bones, have no appetite, lose all erest in the world, and wonder what the matter. It is the grip; nothing c.

This is Undoubtedly the BIGGEST SALE EVER IN RICHMOND!

We have just received from Importers in New York $10,000 worth of Goods on consignment for the Holidays, consisting of

DINNER, TEA, and CHAMBER SETS, Cut Glass, Bronzes, Clocks, Bisque Figures, Vases, Bric-a-Brac,

PIANO, BANQUET, and PARLOR LAMPS,

Umbrella Stands, Cuspidors, Jardiniers, Etc., Etc.,

and are instructed to sell the above at

PRIME COST FOR CASH!

This is a BONA FIDE OFFER, and you should avail yourself of this great opportunity to buy of us, as you will save from 50 to 100 per cent. on all goods purchased at this sale. We have displayed the goods on our counters, and are now ready for business.

Don't Miss This Opportunity!

All are invited to attend this sale, whether you purchase or not. We have an additional number of salesmen for this occasion, who will take pleasure in showing you the goods.

RICHMOND CHINA COMPANY.

1003 East Main Street.

MUST BE SOLD BEFORE JANUARY I,

JEWELRY, DIAMONDS,

SILVERWARE, &C., &C., CLOCKS,

at Prices Lower than Ever before Known in this city. S. L. BLOOMBERG, Trustee.

H. M. MOSES COMPANY, 920 Main Street.

COR, SECOND AND BROAD.

TOYS, CLOAKS, CARPETS

ALL TO BE CLOSED OUT REGARD. LESS OF COST.

Our Toy Department Closes

with the Holidays, therefore you may expect Bargains as Everything must be Closed Out. Not a Single Article will be Carried Over. At Cost. Less Than Cost. 'Way Below Cost.

CLOAKS.

A LARGE ASSORTMENT.

Plush Cloaks that were $20, $25 and $30, now $5 apiece.

CARPETS.

A New Carpet for Xmas Gift would be Very Acceptable.

39c., 45c., 50c., 60c., 65c., 75c. and 80c. buys Nice Carpets. We make and lay them in a few hours'

Hundreds of dozens of Handkerchiefs for Ladies, Gents and Children, 5c. to $1 apiece. Thousands of pairs of Gloves for Ladies, Gents and Children.

THERE CAN BE FOUND AT THE OLD AND RELIABLE STAND

CHARLES L. TODD, Corner 6th & Clay Sts., Richmond, Va.,

A WELL-SELECTED STOCK OF CHRISTMAS SUPPLIES,

AS FOLLOWS:

Transparent, Corsican, and Leghorn Citron, London Layer, Sultana, Ondara, Valencia Raisins, and Maiaga ditto.

New Paper-Shell, Soft-Shell, Jordon, and Valencia Shelled Almonds; fresh, new crop nuts of every variety.
Cleaned and Unwashed Currants.
Malaga Grapes.

Foreign and Bomestic Fruits of Every Kind.
Delicious Home-Made Mince Meats, Fruit Jelies, Preserved Fruits, Apple and Peach Butters, Canned Fruits of every kind. Flavoring Extracts, Spices, &c.

New Dill, Pla-Money, and other choice Sweet and Sour Pickles.
Orange County and fine Sugar-Cured Hams, Smoked Tongues, Sausage, and Boneless Bacon Strips.

Pure Tare-free Virginia and Northern Buckwheats, finest Butter, and new crop New Orleans Molasses, Fresh Country Eggs, &c., &c.

E. B. LOVING, LINWOD WILLS, J. C. SPINDLE, H. L. BEARD.

R. H. BOSHER'S SONS,

Call and see our large stock of VICTORIAS, PHAETONS. BUGGIES and CALLES. The best and cheapest in the city, considering the quality of work. Pepairing and Repainting done in the best namer. 15 S. Ninth St.,

TRUSTEE'S SALE OF FURNITURE.

THE ENTIRE STOCK OF PRESTON BELVIN. A Full Line of Elegant Holiday Goods. THE FINEST, LARGEST AND BEST SELECTED GOODS IN THE SOUTH AT LOWER PRICES THAN EVER OFFERED BEFORE.

CALL EARLY AND SELECT BARGAINS. TERMS: CASH, NOTES OF RESPONSIBLE PARTIES, OR ON THE INSTALL

Nos. 16 and 18 Governor Street. WILLIAM A. MONCURE, Trustee.

JULIUS SYCLE & SON COLD STORAGE FOR RENT

KINGAN & CO. (L'td), RICHMOND, VA.